No. C3- 2969/37-38 dated the 20th April

From the D.C. Bangalore.

Ltr the application of Abdul Jabbar Khan, C.T.M. Station, Bangalore, praying for the transfer to his name of the Sarjapur Jahgir pension Rs 2-9-9 drawn by the late Mr. Syed Ahmed (P.P.O. No. 63)

The last Cavalcadar Syed Ahmed is reported to have died on 23.10.37 and the present claimant is stated to be the deceased pensioner's grandson (daughter's son). It is reported by the Amildar, Anekal, that the petitioner is the only legal heir of the deceased pensioner, and that there is no objection to the registry of the pension in his name. The Collector C.T.M. Station, Bangalore, where the petitioner is residing, has obtained a statement from the petitioner, in which he has stated that he has a young brother, by name Abdul Hameed, (a minor) who is under his guardianship. The D.C. Bangalore recommends that the vacant pension may be transferred to the joint names of Abdul Jabbar Khan and Abdul Hameed, and the entire pension being ordered to be paid to the petitioner till his minor brother attains his majority, after which his share may be paid to him.

According to Mahomedan Law there are three classes of heirs, namely (i) Sharers, (ii) Residuaries, and (iii) Distant Kindred. It is only when there are no Sharers or Residuaries that the inheritance is divided amongst Distant Kindred. Daughter's Sons come among the distant kindred. If there are no persons answering the description of sharer or Residuaries, then the present petitioner and his minor brother will be entitled to the pension. It seems to me however that it is desirable to direct a further inquiry to find out if the deceased has left behind any persons who can claim as a Sharer or Residuary (such as A.

SIR,

GENERAL SECRETARY 25 APR. 1938

Subject:— Re. the transfer of the Sarjapur Jahgir pension to the name of Abdul Jabbar Khan.

-- -- --

I have the honour to state that one Abdul Jabbar Khan No.4, 'D' Street, Viviani Road, Bangalore Cantonment put in an application to this office on 20-4-1938, praying that as he was the only heir of the Jahgir pensioner Mr. Syed Ahmed, who died on 23-10-1937, (holder of P.P.O.No. 60 of the value of Rs.2-9-9) being his daughter's son, the vacant pension might be transferred to his name, and added, that the arrears of pension due to the deceased pensioner, Syed Ahmed, for 23 days in the month of October 1937, has been paid to him already as he happened to be the next hukdar.

The Amildar, Anekal Taluk, to whom the petition had been referred to for enquiry and report, states in his No.T.C.125/37-38 dated 6-2-1938, that there was no objection to change the registry of the pension to the name of the petitioner who was ascertained to be the only legal heir of the deceased pensioner. The Collector, C & M Station, Bangalore, where the petitioner is now residing was also written to requesting him to ascertain if the petitioner was the only legal heir to the vacant pension.

The Collector, C & M Station, has obtained the statememt of the petitioner and states in his No.833-B-38 dated 10-3-1938, that besides the petitioner, there is a younger brother of the petitioner, by name, Abdul Hameed, who is a minor and is under the guardianship of the petitioner and besides these two, there were no other claimants for the vacant pension enjoyed by the late Mr. Syed Ahmed.

Under the circumstances stated above, the vacant pension standing in the name of the late pensioner Syed Ahamed, may be kindly ordered to be transferred to the joint names of Abdul Jabbar Khan and his minor brother Abdul Hameed and the full amount ordered to be paid to the petitioner, till the minor attains majority, as he is reported to be under the protection of his brother.

The connected records are enclosed herewith for your kind reference.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Deputy Commissioner,
Bangalore District.
